Please attribute the following response to Greater Dandenong City Council
Executive Director City Futures, Sanjay Manivasagasivam:

As allowed under the Building Act, the site at 404-406 Springvale Road, Springvale is under control of a private building surveyor. We have reached out to the surveyor to get an update on the status of this site.

From the Dandenong Journal

I'd like to know what's happening to the block on 404-406 Springvale Rd?

Google shows the block under construction in 2021 and it's been sitting partly built for 4 years now.
