SOUTH EAST SPORTS HUB OFF THE TABLE

Please attribute the following media statement to Greater Dandenong City Council Executive Director, City Futures, Sanjay Manivasagasivam:

The developer Intrapac has withdrawn its application to rezone the Keysborough Golf Course. This included an application to realign the Urban Growth Boundary to allow for the development of 1,600 new dwellings.

Intrapac has also withdrawn its application for the South East Sports Hub (SESH), which was proposed to be a 70-hectare sport and recreation precinct at 226-256 Pillars Road, Bangholme.

Intrapac have a further application for a new golf course at 306-356 Pillars Road, Bangholme, which they are continuing to pursue.
